The RWA Galleries The drawing room is situated just next to the main galleries and a few times in the year there are exhibition changeovers. Whilst staff try and keep disruption to a minimum, please be aware there may be some extra noise during these times.

Accessibility: The RWA has disabled access through its main entrance and level access to the cafe and shop on the Ground Floor. There is lift access to the Main Galleries on the First Floor as well as access to the Long Gallery and accessible toilet on the Lower Ground Floor. If you require the use of the Accessible Parking space please contact front desk on : 0117 973 5129

Monday classes - If your class is on a Monday please note that although the RWA gallery is closed on Mondays the Drawing School classes are still running as normal , so please ring the bell at the main gallery entrance (brown doors) and a member of staff will let you in.
